Introduction to Student Support Service

ACE provides the opportunity for all students to access welfare and academic related support services to assist with issues that may arise during your study, including course progress and attendance requirements, health and accommodation issues. These services are provided at no additional cost to you through our Student Support Service Officers. If ACE refers you to external support services, ACE will not charge for the referral, however some external agencies may charge you a fee for their service should you chose to use them.

ACE has designated staff to address Student Support Services. The Student Support Officers will endeavour to approach you generally from time to time to identify the area of supports that you may need in all aspects of your Academic progress.

Along with the Student Support Services, ACE also provides students with access to external welfare related support services to assist with issues that may arise during their study. The Student Support Services Officers can assist with referrals to external agencies.

This Student Support Service Guidebook will make you aware about the kind of services that ACE is committed to provide, where you would find this information and who you can to contact in order to get these services. Additionally, this guidebook will also give you a brief idea about the different kinds of services that you might need during your time as a student in Melbourne.

Role of Student Support Services Team

ACE provides student support staff who can help students with all aspects of their academic or personal concerns or problems. We urge you to utilise ACE’s free support officers who are there to help you.

All students will have unlimited access to our student support services through our Student Support Officers. The Student Support Service Officers aim to:

- ensure that those with the most knowledge of, and responsibility for the student, work together to establish shared goals for the student’s educational future
- plan reasonable adjustments for the student to access the curriculum
- provide educational planning that is ongoing throughout the student’s enrolment at ACE
- monitor the progress of the student

In order to achieve these aims, it is the role and responsibility of the Student Support Officers to:

- Conduct orientation for new students before they start their course
- identify student’s learning or welfare needs
- determine any reasonable adjustments to be made to the curriculum
- develop an Intervention Strategy if required once studies have commenced
- liaise with Trainers and Course Coordinators regarding student progress
- provide advice to the Director of Studies concerning the additional educational needs of the student and the types of resources required to meet these needs
- review and evaluate the student’s program on a regular basis as determined by Trainers and Course Coordinators/Director of Studies
- Provide appropriate contact details of respective services related to welfare

- Immigration Enquires
- Any difficulties with your study
- Visa Assistance
- Work Permit
- Tax File

External Student Support Services – Psychology Melbourne

While all students will have free and unlimited access to our internal student support services, it is acknowledged that in some instances, the support required by the student is beyond the capability of the SSSO (e.g. in the case of mental health issues) and more specialized external services are required.

In this instance, the SSSO will discuss with the student the appropriateness of a referral to ACE’s external welfare provider - Psychology Melbourne. Referrals to psychological counselling and coordination of such services will be done at no cost to the student. The student, however, will be reminded of their responsibility to fund such external services, which is to be paid by the student directly to Psychology Melbourne. Should the student wish to proceed with this service, the SSSO will assist the student in arranging an appointment with one of the external welfare officers/psychologist.

Psychology Melbourne are equipped in providing guidance and support with general welfare issues, career counseling, coping with life changing events (e.g. moving overseas, change of cultural environment etc) and managing mental health conditions (if applicable).

Types of Student Support Services and Welfare Services

Below are the lists of student support services along with their page numbers and location, where you can find detail information about each service.

Specific Academic Support Assistance

ACE provides the opportunity for students to participate in additional services in meeting course requirements. Every student is expected to maintain at least a 50% pass of units through each term.

If any student is not able to understand or catch up with the training classes or not understanding the course content, they can request for extra sessions, where the student will be provided with assistance from their Trainer.

ACE also provides students with support for assignment preparation, and referencing, writing reports, reading skills, numeracy skills, giving presentations, library research and note taking. ACE also ensures Trainers provide extra guidance to students who may be lacking in computer literacy and help them to show how to use computer system, internet research and prepare documents and presentations. Students are also directed to seek assistance from their Trainers with all matters related to their studies to achieve successful course completion on time.
Special Circumstance Assistance
Where a student is deemed to be “at risk” of not achieving a satisfactory course progress, intervention strategies shall be implemented to provide the student the opportunity to improve their progress. The student is to be notified within the term, if he/she is shortage of attendance or course progress. The Intervention Strategy can be implemented once within the course period. If had to be repeated, there is an additional reassessment fee included and the CoE (Confirmation of Enrolment for overseas students) has to be extended or re-generated for the student. These intervention steps will include meeting with the student to identify the cause that is placing the student at risk. Within this meeting, strategies to assist the student in completing the course within the expected duration shall be discussed and implemented as required. These strategies may include:

- Extra tuition and support to be organised
- Timetable adjustments
- Personal strategies to improve the students ability to complete the course requirements
- Review of assessment strategies
- Extension in duration of course
- Resubmitting an assessment

The student’s record will be considered as part of the intervention strategy, in particular:

- Previously implemented intervention strategy if any
- Attendance records
- Class participation

The Director of Studies will meet with students identified as being at risk of not achieving a satisfactory academic progression and decide the intervention strategy most suited to the specific student situation. (See 10.7 Course Progress Feedback, 10.8 Intervention Strategy Recommendations Agreement)

Steps to SEEK assistance for Academic Support

Step 1: Discuss your needs with your Trainer

Ask your trainer to make a time to talk to them privately about your concerns. Clearly tell them what areas of your learning you need help with for example, assessments or reading. This will help the trainer to work out who at ACE is the best person to help you.

Together with your trainer, discuss how you can work through your academic problems together. You may need to put in some extra hours of study at home to revise previous topics, or arrange to seek one-on-one assistance from your Trainer during or after class. Your Trainer can help you put a study plan together to help you manage your assessment and reading workload so that you don’t fall behind.

Step 2: Who to see next
Your Trainer will advise you about what Student Support Services to seek if you need additional help. Your Trainer may refer you to the Student Support Services Officer or an Administration Support Officer if you need assistance with extra language skills, welfare services or need forms or letters from ACE.

Please refer to p.6 of this Guide for details of our Student Support Services Staff and how they can help you. Remember—you can approach the Student Support Staff at any time with questions.

Step 3: A Student Intervention Strategy

If the problem is serious and you are struggling to meet ACE’s academic progress or attendance requirements (attendance must be a minimum of 80%) your Trainer/and or the Student Support Officer helping you may speak to the Director of Studies about placing you on a Student Intervention Strategy which is a formal document at ACE outlining specifically what help you need and steps that ACE will take to help you achieve success in your studies.

Student Cards

To help students identify themselves as an ACE student, ACE will supply you with a student ID card which has an ID number. This ID number would be required all throughout the course period to track your course and attendance progress and records. Students are recommended to remember this ID number.

This ID card is provided to every student during orientation. If not received the student card within 4 weeks of the enrolment, please contact our Student Support officer or report to Head Office.

In case of any loss of Student ID card, students can request ACE’s Student support Officer or Front Office staff in head office for replacement of ID card. A replacement fees of 25$ is charged for re issue of student ID card and would be supplied to the student within 5 working days from the time it has been requested for.

Critical Incidents

In the Event of a Critical Incident or Emergency on Campus:

In the event of a critical incident such as a serious injury, serious and sudden illness, assault, crime, natural disaster or other threat ACE asks all staff and students to follow these steps to ensure everyone’s safety:

1. Clear the area around the effected person/persons and call emergency services on 000 to request police, fire brigade or ambulance.
2. If the area needs to be evacuated, move to the assembly area of your campus (outside the main entry doors of each campus).
3. Notify the Student Support Officer of that campus who will run the Critical Incident Policy and Procedure. In the event that they cannot be contacted, a member of staff such as a Trainer or Administration Officer will initiate the Critical Incident Procedure.
4. You may also call the CEO on the 24 hour ACE emergency mobile number 0498-146-492. Clearly state the nature of the emergency and your exact location.
5. Please remain calm and follow all instructions given to you by ACE staff to ensure the safety of all.

In the Event of a Critical Incident or Emergency outside of ACE/after hours:

In the event of a critical incident such as a serious injury, accident, serious and sudden illness, assault, crime, natural disaster or other threat:
1. Clear the area around the effected person/persons and call emergency services on 000 to request police, fire brigade or ambulance.
2. Call the CEO on the 24 hour ACE emergency mobile number 0498-146-492. Clearly state the nature of the emergency and your exact location. The CEO will be able to access the effected student’s file and notify their family or make other arrangements as required. He will also run the Critical Incident Policy and Procedure.

Information about life in Melbourne, Australia

Australian Culture & Values

Australia's multicultural society is made up of people from over 210 different nationalities, so it is difficult to define what is 'typical' in Australian culture or social customs.

However, there are some values most Australians consider important:

That people will be given a 'fair go'. This means, that you will be treated equitably.

Respect for the rights of the individual. In Australia there is an emphasis on individual achievement. Other students may not be greatly concerned about the opinions of friends and family, and may be more likely to make decisions based upon what they want for themselves.

Australia strives to be a democratic society. The aim is that people will be treated the same. Young people in Australia do not necessarily show others more respect because they're older. Academic staff may ask you to address them by their first name.

Australians believe in equality. People who work in “blue-collar” (non-professional) occupations are entitled to the same respect as those who work in the “white-collar” (professional) occupations. Questions of wealth and position are not used as a measure of an individual’s merit or worth.

Social customs

Your own customs can be maintained within the Australian community and most Australians will understand your reasons. For example, if your religion prohibits you from eating certain foods or drinking alcohol, you will be able to maintain these customs. Please do not hesitate to point out politely that you cannot partake of what is being offered.

Physical contact

Australian men generally do not openly display strong affection for male friends. It is not common to see Australian men showing affection towards each other in public even if they are very close friends. The exception is while playing sport, and at family gatherings.

Women will more often display affection openly and this may take the form of hugging or greeting another woman with a kiss on the cheek.

Signs of affection between males and females are more common and it is quite normal to see men and women holding hands, walking arm-in-arm or kissing in public.

Appointments

In Australia it is considered rude not to keep an appointment once you have accepted an invitation. If you do not wish to accept an invitation, the custom is to say so immediately. It is also acceptable to express doubt as to your availability, and contact your 'host' later.

If you have a professional appointment that you are unable to attend you should call and reschedule or cancel before the appointment time, as it can appear very rude to just not attend.
Social events
Some behaviour is socially unacceptable and there are laws against it. For example, it is against the law to be drunk in public, to swear in public, to use indecent language, to behave in a sexually indecent way or to urinate in public. There are often Council rules against spitting (if you need to clear your throat or nose use a handkerchief or tissue). Noise must be kept at reasonable level even in your own home.

Parties can get noisy and boisterous particularly when a lot of alcohol is consumed. It can be upsetting for many people. If you are in this situation and feel you would like to leave, politely excuse yourself. No one will mind if you do so.

Invitations
The most common invitations are to dinner (often called tea) at someone's house (in which case it is polite but not compulsory to bring a small contribution, e.g. a bottle of wine or box of chocolates), to a party at someone's house, or going out for dinner or drinks at a pub, restaurant or café.

Punctuality
Punctuality is important, whether you have an appointment or have been invited to a social event. If you are running late, or need to cancel the appointment, it is considered polite to let the person know.

Queuing
When forming a queue to buy tickets, waiting for a bank teller or getting on a bus, it is considered impolite to push ahead of someone who was in the queue before you.

Environmentally friendly
Keep the environment tidy by placing food wrappers, drink cans, take-away food containers, plastic bags, newspapers etc. in rubbish bins. If these cannot be found, carry the rubbish with you until it can be deposited in a rubbish bin.

Smoking
In Victoria, smoking is not permitted in restaurants, bars and pubs or in public buildings, which includes all buildings on campus. Many Australians do not smoke and ask visitors smoke outside when visiting their home.

INTEGRATING INTO LIFE IN MELBOURNE
Melbourne is the capital of Victoria and is located in the southern part of Australia. It has a population of three million people. Melbourne has been classified as the world’s most liveable city.

Melbourne has four seasons per year: summer, autumn, spring and winter. During summer the usual maximum daily temperature ranges from 28 to 35 degrees Celsius. The evenings are usually cooler. Summer heat is dry, rather than humid. Light clothing is sufficient for summer. However, a jumper (Sweater) or light jacket may be necessary for the evenings.

Winter can be wet and windy. Daylight temperatures range from 10 to 15 degrees Celsius. Night time temperatures range from 2 to 9 degrees Celsius. Warm cloths including an overcoat will be necessary during Melbourne’s winter months.

Melbourne is a culturally diverse city. It has many art galleries, cafes and restaurants.

Shopping

Melbourne has numerous large shopping centres, department stores, discount stores and supermarkets. Students would find there most of the goods and services they need.

International Food Stores are located in the following places:

ACE is located strategically close by the bustling Sydney Rd. The Street is laden with international groceries, bakeries, food markets, and meat and poultry outlets. A number of Chinese, Middle-Eastern and European restaurants are also located on that street. Other important services are located at:

Queen Victoria Market – Corner Elizabeth and Victoria Streets, Melbourne

Tram Route: Tram no. 19 from Sydney Road.

* Good cheap fresh fruit, vegetables, meat, poultry and seafood. Clothes and home ware items are also available.

Chinatown – Little Bourke Street between Swanston and Exhibition Streets, Melbourne.

Tram Route 19 from Sydney Road.

*Small Asian grocery shops, bakeries and restaurants.

Use Public Transport In Melbourne

It is easy to travel around Melbourne using public transport. The three types of public transport are bus, train and tram which all use the myki ticketing system. Two fare zones apply. The ticket you buy will depend upon the length of time you need and how far (within these zones) you need to travel.
You can purchase the tickets from various retail outlets or train stations.

PLEASE NOTE THAT INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS ARE NOT ENTITLED TO STUDENT TRAVEL CONCESSIONS.

ACE AREA IS SERVICED BY A LARGE NUMBER OF TRAM, BUS AND RAILWAY ROUTES. Normal hours of operation are from 5:00 a.m. to midnight, Monday to Saturday and from 8:00 a.m. to 11.00 p.m. on Sunday. Tickets, time-tables, maps and other information relating to services are available from train stations, on board buses and trams and on the Public Transport Victoria website.

Please ensure that you always carry a valid ticket. Inspectors often patrol trains, trams and buses. They have the power to fine you if you do not carry a valid ticket. Remember penalties are very expensive and failure to carry a valid ticket may involve an appearance in Court.

V/Line is a network of trains and luxury road coaches operating throughout country Victoria and to several interstate destinations. For V/Line travel information contact 132 232 (7:00 a.m. – 9:00 p.m. daily)

Obtain a Driver’s Licence in Melbourne

If you have a licence from your home country, you may use it for only three months, after which you must obtain a Victorian drivers licence.

If you have an International Permit, check with your embassy/Consulate as to its duration. For example, 12 month, two years, etc. Once it expires you must obtain a Victorian drivers licence.

In both instances you will be required to undertake the complete testing procedure in order to obtain a Victorian licence. As regulations change, it is suggested that you should contact Vic Roads to confirm that this information is current.

Car / Property Insurance

Under Victorian law all drivers are required to undertake compulsory third party insurance which is paid annually with your car registration. Under third party insurance you are only covered for personal injury and not for damage to cars or property. It is strongly advisable to take out car insurance which will cover you for damage to cars and property. Check the yellow pages telephone Directory for phone numbers of Insurance Companies. Compare prices and policies between companies before you take out a policy.

Banking in Australia may be different from banking in your home country. However, the main functions may be the same: depositing and lending.

There are 4 major banks: Westpac, The Commonwealth, National Bank of Australia (NAB) and ANZ banks. There are also smaller banks. Branches of a number of overseas banks are located in Melbourne. Banks are the safest places to keep your money. Their funds are guaranteed by the Reserve Bank of Australia.

Other financial institutions include credit unions, finance companies, life insurance companies and merchant banks. Although these institutions may offer a higher rates of interest, these funds are not Government guaranteed.

How to Open Bank Account?
Information needed to open an account includes your personal details, address, employment etc. You will be required by law to complete a form that asks:

- The name you wish the account to be in,
- Whether or not the account is held in trust,
- The name and residential address of all signatories,
- Any other name or any other signatory on the account.
Some banks may waive charges for students’ accounts. It is worth investigating.

Proof of Identity
The law requires banks to verify the identity of each signatory to an account. As an International Student, the identification you will require to produce includes:

- Residence of less than six weeks – Passport only.
- Residence of more than six weeks – 100 points identification. This includes a passport and either a birth certificate, reference or credit cards

Tax File Number and Bank Accounts
The government requires that tax file number be given to the bank. To do so, obtain a form from the bank. If you do not give the bank your tax file number, almost 50% of interest gained will be taken out of your earnings as tax. If this happens, you may have to wait until you have subACEed a tax return before you receive a refund for excess tax paid.

Credit Cards
Some students like to have credit cards but forget to repay the money owed. Debit cards may be a better idea. Lay-by may even be a better way to secure goods. Lay-by involves paying a small weekly amount of money on the goods purchased. Interest is not charged but goods must be repaid within a certain period. Many chain stores would hand you over the goods after paying a small deposit and then you are given time (about 12 months) to repay the balance, without charging you interest.

Automatic Teller Machines
One of the most convenient services provided by banks and other institutions is the ATM. There are some things to remember about ATM’s. These are relatively easy and safe to use. Things can go wrong with ATM’s. They can malfunction, eat your card or give the wrong balance. It is your responsibility to take care of your card, your PIN and your transactions with the bank. When you get your card, you get a list of ‘conditions of use’. Read it.

Money from Overseas
Check with your bank for details. Students should be aware of any currency export restrictions in their home country.

Banking Ombudsman
If you get into a difficulty with your bank try to negotiate with its officials. If you do not get a satisfactory closing, you may refer the matter to the Banking Ombudsman. The Ombudsman will investigate your complaint on your behalf. The Ombudsman has the power to demand restitutions. It is a free service.

Find Part-Time Work in Australia
People find part-time jobs through a number of different sources. The following are examples of the most common ways:

Newspapers
The Age newspaper on Wednesday and Saturday has an employment section. You can also look in the Herald Sun and local newspapers.
The Yellow Pages Telephone Book
The Yellow Pages is Melbourne’s business directory. It can be a good way to find out the names of businesses of a particular type. For instance, for cleaning jobs you could look up the cleaning firms in your area and call them up asking for work.

International phone calls
International calls can be made direct from all phones in Australia, including payphones.

Simply dial the following:

International access code (0011);
Your country code (if you are unsure of the country code, dial 132 200 for information);
Area code for your city (remember not to dial the first zero);
Your friends or families phone number (for example).

International calls are timed and charged according to the destination, time of day and day of the week. Weekend rates are often much cheaper than rates during the week.

Please note that it can be very easy to make several hundred dollars worth of international calls within a short period of time. Your may wish to consider buying pre-paid international phone cards which usually offer cheaper rates and are available from most newsagencies and post offices.

Mobile phones
It is suggested that you talk to students who have been in Australia for some time for tips on the best phone company and network to use. Some phone companies will not supply services to people who are temporary residents in Australia, but you can always use a pre-paid phone plan.

Pre-paid mobile phones also ensure that you will never be faced with an unexpectedly high mobile phone bill. Pre-paid mobile phones may be purchased at a number of retail outlets, including Australia Post.
Postal services
Post offices are generally open 9am-5pm Monday to Friday. Mail is delivered once a day on weekdays only. Mail within Australia has a flat rate of postage for a standard letter. Non-standard letters and parcels are charged by weight and size.

International mail charges are calculated by weight, size, destination and mode of transport. You can also pay many utility bills at the post office (e.g. phone, gas, electricity).

FINDING ACCOMODATION

Deciding where to live is one of the most important decisions you will make. You should consider what type of accommodation you would like prior to arriving in Melbourne. ACE officers will endeavour to advise students on this matter.

Please note that finding accommodation after you arrive in Melbourne may take some time. If you elect to find your accommodation after arrival in Melbourne you should arrive at least 2 weeks prior to the commencement of classes and you will need to have temporary accommodation in place while you secure your permanent accommodation.

A number of options can be considered including:

Share and Rental Accommodation

In share houses, each person usually has their own bedroom and shares the kitchen, bathroom and living areas. Rental costs range from AU$140–AU$220 per person per week, depending on location and facilities.

Real estate agents offer a variety of rental accommodation, including houses and apartments. The average weekly rent ranges from AU$200–AU$300 for a one bedroom flat, and AU$250–AU$400 for a two bedroom flat. Additional expenses for both share and rental accommodation include: food, gas, electricity, transport and telephone calls.

Please note, this option is not suitable for students under 18 years of age.
Private Student Hostel Accommodation

There are many private hostels close to ACE, offering a furnished bedroom, shared bathroom, living and leisure areas. Some hostels provide meals, while others provide kitchen facilities. Computer facilities may also be available. Weekly prices range from AU$220–AU$350. Extra costs may include payment of a bond. A bond is a security deposit that is held until your tenancy has finished. It will usually be refunded fully if you have no rental arrears or you have not caused any damage to the premises.

Home stay/ Full Board

Home stay is an excellent choice for students wanting to experience living in an Australian home, while at the same time improving their English. Students generally have their own furnished bedroom and share living spaces with their Home stay family. Weekly rates are approximately AU$230. Meals are included; however telephone calls and travel expenses are not. All Home stay hosts live within 30 to 40 minutes of Melbourne’s Central Business District (CBD) where ACE University's City campus is located. Your host family will help you learn about travelling to classes by public transport.

Student apartment complexes

Student apartment complexes are fully furnished and allow students to live independently in a secure and supportive residential environment. As these complexes are very popular there is a high demand when vacancies are advertised. Utility costs are not usually included in the rental price. Rental can vary from AU$150–AU$300 per week.

Tenancy Law

In Victoria there is a law to protect the rights of tenants (people who rent houses, flats, etc.) and landlords. It is important that you know your rights and obligations as a tenant.

Rent Accommodation

Before looking for a place to rent make sure that:

- The group you have decided to set up house with are reasonable and.comACEed,
- You all agree on the maximum rent you are prepared to pay,
- The size of the house /flat and the suburb in which it is located.

Resources Available in House Hunting

ACE Student Services: ACE Student Services may have lists of available accommodation. Check with the office.

Newspapers: The classified section of the ‘Age’ newspaper on Wednesday and Saturday and the classified section of the Herald/Sun newspaper.

Estate Agents: Estate Agents have lists of houses and flats available for rent.

How to rent through an Agent:

Check the Yellow Pages (under ‘Real Estate Agents- Locality Guide’, to find addresses of agents in the suburbs in which you desire to live in. You should visit Agents in the area you are interested in. Keep in constant touch with the Agent by phone until a property becomes available. Remember: Agents will NOT contact you if a suitable place comes up.
If you find a property you like, you may inspect it. The Agent will either show you the property or give you a key in exchange for a deposit. Make sure you get a receipt for the deposit. This money must be returned to you when you return the key.

If you find the place suitable, make an ‘Application for Tenancy’. On this application the Agent will ask for the name and phone number of referees (previous Agents/Landlords, employer, parents or someone who can give you a character reference). The Agent/Landlord will decide on the basis of your application whether or not they want you as a tenant.

Application Forms and Deposits

Agents will usually give you an application form to fill in. These can often ask detailed personal questions (like bank account numbers). If you think a question is too personal, do not answer it. Agents and owners will also often ask for an ‘Application Deposit’, when you apply for a place. If you do not get the place, or if they rent it to you, you receive the money back. BUT if you get the place and do not take it or withdraw your application, they can keep the deposit you paid. Be careful to pay an application deposit only when you are sure that you want the place.

Tenancy Agreement or Lease

When you get the place you want, you usually sign a ‘Tenancy Agreement’ or ‘Lease’. You can have a fixed term tenancy (usually 6 or 12 months). If you sign a lease, make sure that you want to stay for the whole duration of the lease. It is possible to break a lease but this can be very expensive. Make sure all members of the household understand the ‘Tenancy Agreement’ and if possible, all members sign it. This will make all members legally responsible.

Bonds

Agents or Landlords keep a sum of money) called a ‘Bond’) they collect from you in an approved Trust Fund. The amount of the bond is usually equal to one month rent. The bond is held in trust against any damage) outside of normal wear and tear) caused by you during the term of tenancy. If you leave the property clean and in good condition, then your bond should be returned to you in full.

Condition report

A condition report is a list of all the rooms in your place: What is in them, and what condition they are in (good, fair or poor repair). You MUST get two copies of the report when you move in. You should sign them after carefully checking the property (you are allowed three days). Send one copy to the Agent/Landlord and keep the other copy in a safe place. The condition report is important when getting your bond back. It is proof of the condition of the place. Remember if an Agent or Landlord wishes to keep part or your entire bond, they must make an application to the Consumer Affairs Victoria to get approval. You will then notify CAV as whether or not you agree with this. (1300 558 181)

Help Selecting A Flat Mate

Sharing a Rental House or Flat

Sharing a place can be an enjoyable experience. Yet not surprisingly people sharing places can have troubles with the co-occupiers. Whether you know a person well or not, one of the most important factors to consider is how well you would get on as roommates. There is no way you can be sure of a perfectly happy co-existence, no matter how honest and careful you were. However, by talking about some simple practical lifestyle matters before making a commitment to live together, you can save yourself considerable headache.

Some Ideas You Should Consider When Sharing are:
Lifestyle

- Does everyone like having parties?
- Smoking/Drinking? Maybe you do not, but you do mind if others around you do?
- Overnight visitors?
- Do you want an all-student household?

Housekeeping

- How neat and clean do you like the place to be?
- How will you organise the cleaning? Who will do it? And how will this be decided?

Food/Eating

- What foods do you like eg: meat/vegetables?
- Do you plan to share cooking and share food costs?
- Do you want to buy your own food?

Lease/Bills/Rent

If your name is on the lease, you can be held responsible for the actions of all the tenants. If a co-tenant leaves without paying the rent, you can be held responsible for all the rent owing. It is probably a good idea to have all the names of people living in the household on the lease and the bills. In such case it is less likely that one person gets stuck with the entire responsibility.

Immigration assistance

To apply for your student visa go to www.immi.gov.au/e_visa/students.htm and follow the online visa application process instructions. Please note you are able to attach supporting documentation when lodging your application online. To apply in person please call 131 881 in order to make an appointment at the following Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) office:
Information you should know
You should have a multiple entry visa lasting for the duration of your course. This will enable you to return home for your holidays. If you hold a single entry permit, you will then have to reapply for a re-entry visa from the Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) every time you leave or enter the country.

You must be enrolled as a full-time student and must also attend at least 80% of your classes. If you are ill, you must notify Student Services and obtain a certificate from a doctor. If you break this Condition of Stay, you will be reported to the Department of Immigration and Border Protection. The Department will cancel your entry permit and you will be deported.

You must have a current passport. You can renew it at your government’s consulate or embassy at least six months before the date of expiry. Australian Immigration Officials cannot issue visas beyond the expiry date of your passport. You can check your visa status through Visa Entitlement verification Online (VEVO) at: www.immi.gov.au/e_visa/vevo.htm

Sponsoring dependents
Students must be enrolled in a course of more than 12 months duration if they wish to bring their dependents along to Australia while they are studying. To sponsor your family, contact the nearest regional office of the Department of Immigration and Border Protection. The closest one to ACE is located at Casselden Place, 2 Lonsdale Street, Melbourne, and VIC 3000. Telephone 9612 3900.

Customs Regulations
There are many students who are charged for not declaring animal and plant products they bring into Australia. These products include dried meat and seafood, powders, spices, herbs, garlic and other animal and plant products. Fines for each of these offences are quite high.

It is best to check with your nearest Australian High Commissioner or Embassy as to the types of products you can and cannot bring into Australia.

Please note that if you are bringing computers, cameras or other types of goods into the country, you will have to pay duty on these items. This can be quite considerable payments.

You must:
Indicate on your Customs Declaration Form ALL foodstuff you are carrying. You must declare everything - it is too late to tell Customs at the airport.

If in doubt, declare all animal and plant products you may be carrying.

If you are given parcels to bring into Australia, find out what is in them. Not knowing what you had in your luggage is not an acceptable excuse in Court.

On the aircraft, you may ask for a Declaration Form in your own language.
How to Find Services for the Family

Spouses intending to study in Australia
Spouses of international students wishing to study will be charged full fees for their chosen field of study.
